Club Membership Policy

The Club's membership year runs from September 1st through August 31st, and the policy of the Club is not to prorate membership dues. New members who join the Club before the Club's Midwest Fly Fishing Expo in March, will have their first year's membership paid through the end of the current membership year. New members who join the Club on or after the MFFC Expo, will have their first year's dues paid through the end of the following membership year. For example, if you join in January 2025, your membership will expire on August 31, 2026. If you join in March 2025, your membership will not expire until August 31, 2026. This membership extension only applies to individuals joining the Club for the first time and does not apply to current members or individuals returning to the Club after a lapse in membership.
